RETAINED RIGHTS

Abstract and Citation information - Authors may reuse the Abstract and Citation information (e.g. Title, Author name, Publication dates) of their article anywhere at any time including social media such as Facebook, blogs and Twitter, providing that where possible a link is included back to the article on the OUP site. Preferably the link should be, or include, the Digital Object Identifier (DOI) which can be found in the Citation information about your article online.

Author's Original Version - Authors may reuse the Author's Original Version (AOV) anywhere at any time, providing that once the article is accepted they provide a statement of acknowledgement, and that once the article has been published this acknowledgement is updated to provide details such as the volume and issue number, the DOI, and a link to the published article on the journal's website

Accepted Manuscript - On first online publication authors may immediately upload their Accepted Manuscript (AM) to their own personal webpage, or their institutional repository on the proviso that it is not made publicly available until 12 months after the online date of publication. After the embargo period, authors may make their AM publicly available through their institutional repository or other non-commercial repositories PROVIDED THAT (1) you include a link (URL) to the VERSION OF RECORD on the journals' website; and (2) the Journal is attributed as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given. AM may not be uploaded to commercial websites or repositories, unless the website or repository has signed a licensing agreement with OUP.

Version of Record - The Version of Record (VOR) as it appears in the journal following copyediting and proof correction may not be deposited by authors in institutional repositories or posted to third party websites unless 1) the article is published on an Open Access model licence that allows for such posting, or 2) the repository or website has signed an agreement with OUP allowing posting.

Open Access - If the article has been published on an Open Access basis, you may deposit the VOR and /or the AM in institutional or centrally organized repositories, immediately upon publication PROVIDED THAT (1) the reuse meets with the terms and restrictions of the chosen licence, (2) you include a link (URL) to the VOR on the journals' website; and (3) the Journal is attributed as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given.

Free link to published article - On publication, authors will be sent an online offprint link allowing access to their article on the OUP website without subscription. For authors of non- Open Access articles, this link may be shared directly with interested colleagues, but is not intended for mass distribution through, repositories, or social media. If you wish to share links or publicize your article we would ask that you instead distribute a link to the abstract of the article. Authors of Open Access articles are free to post and distribute their links anywhere immediately upon publication.

Funding bodies - Please be aware that you are responsible for all funding agency compliance and the accuracy of information you provide in relation to your article. OUP and/or the controlling Learned Society shall not be responsible for checking that funding agency requirements have been complied with.

Educational use - You may use the Article within your employer's institution or company for educational or research purposes only, including use in course-packs, as long as: (1) you do not use it for commercial purposes or re-distribution outside of the institution/company; (2) you acknowledge the Journal as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given.
